

GoShare Healthcare

Looking for information about your health?

Your health professional uses GoShare Healthcare to tailor relevant health information to your needs.

You can receive helpful information such as videos of patients sharing their stories, useful apps and health resources, delivered straight to your inbox or smart phone.

Ask your GP, Nurse or Specialist for more information.

Powered By:

HEALTHILY

Patient education solutions

Ask for your GoShare digital health package now. Your health professional will tailor a package for you including:

Patient Stories

See how other people have managed their conditions, listen to helpful strategies for self-care and find out about the benefits of self-management.

Animations

These short video clips provide helpful tips and step by step advice on a range of health topics and medical conditions in plain language.

Info Sheets

Receive useful, trusted health information specific to your condition, presented in simple language and easy to read formats.

Tools & Resources

These links will take you to credible websites where you will find really useful on-line tools, apps and other resources relevant to your health needs.

Experience the convenience of trusted digital health information and resources tailored for you by your health professional.